

Lesvos map

Lesvos map detailed.

Lesvos is the third largest island in the country, located in the Northern Aegean Sea of the Greek peninsula. It is a mountainous island with lush greenery and dense forests. While popular as tourist destination, agriculture is the main industry in this island which teems with a wealth of natural resources. Its warm climate, olive trees, and beautiful waters have made it a charming place for visitors.

Travelers can reach the island at the capital of Mytilene either via ferry docking at the main port or by plane to the relatively new airport. From there, you can refer to our Lesvos map for the best way to reach your desired accommodations. Lodgings are scattered throughout the numerous towns, with luxury hotels, apartments, hostels and camping grounds available depending on your preferences.

Lesvos is home to some of the most beautiful beaches. With its lush, green scenery as backdrop, it feels almost as close to paradise as can be. Make your way to the clear waters from your place of stay using our detailed map of the island as guide. Memorable beaches in the island include: Vatera, an unbelievable 8km long coastline with crystal clear waters gaining huge popularity among summer visitors; Petra, in the northern part of Lesvos, is home to beautiful beaches, a bustling community right on the beach and the most stunning sunsets; and Skala of Eressos, which turns cosmopolitan and lively during summers features fine, sandy beaches, fun crowds and exciting water sports.

Be sure to explore the small villages, trails, and dense vegetation as they are truly an experience to behold. Lesvos is blessed with an abundance of nature's beauty that a simple trek can be even more exciting than a party down at the taverns. Trace your way through your desired paths through our map of Lesvos, an indispensable tool to making the most of your stay in this wonderful island. Find more information about Lesvos Greece
